Men's and women's leather wallets can be crafted from almost any type of animal including pigs and goats. A popular type of hide, however, is cowhide. Since cowhide is a by-product of the dairy industry, it would be better to turn it into goods such as leather wallets rather than throwing it away.

The best materials for a beach bag are often cotton-canvas, vinyl, mesh and woven straw textures like raffia, says stylist Neelo Noory. Since these fabrics run the gamut in terms of style aesthetic, it's helpful to narrow down which is best-suited for your beachside needs. Synthetic materials are a practical choice for a day at the beach. For example, mesh beach bags are usually made of nylon or polyester, which makes them very light and thin, yet strong. They are also water-resistant and can be cleaned easily since the sand easily falls through the mesh weave.
